Bentarn, 5th July. There are growing signs of an impending storm in the Balkans. The situation is so grave that the holiday vacations of the leading officials at the Foreign Office here have been nostponed A momentous change appears to have occurred in Germany's Bulkan policy. Instead of pursuing the semi-neutral diplomacy of Prince Bismarck, the Emperor has decided with Herr-Radowitz to take the initiative in alvising the has hurriedly returned here from a diplomatic Porte how to meet the contending claims of Bulgaria and Russia. Instructed through Chaucellor Caprivi. Radowitz has promised the Porte an early solution in harmony with the Berlin treaty, and also that an endeavour will be made to meet the Russian war indemnity.

The Emperor's scheme of settlement, according to the accepted report in diplomatic circles. involves the displacing of Prince Ferdinand and the substitution of the Prince of Sweden as ruler of Bulgaria in his stead, and also an arrangement of the Russian indomnity by capitalizing the amount through the internal council of administration, which now controls Turkish loans. The scheme seems to have received an impetus from Emperor William's conference with Prince Oscar at Cristiania.

Though the financial proposals have not been formally communicated to Russia, it is already reported that De Giers, the Russian Prime Minister, has received an intimation of their nature with the expression-that they were not satisfactory to Russin, he stating that Russia did not want to be concerned in rearranging the Turkish debt and preferred to hold the Porte directly to his engagements. His response means that Russia will not let go her grip on

The Minister is accredited to Madrid and Lima, representing his country in Spain and Peru, as well as the United States. Through Secretary Lee the Minister said his sit to Spain was in regard to the establishment of a Chinese consulate in the Philippine islands. which have a Chinese population of 70,000. The rate of taxation imposed upon them is much higher than that expeted from other inhabitants. For both commercial and protective reasons China wishes to be represented in the islands. Minister Tsui was not able to accomplish his object, although he hopes to do so in time.

The Embassador's visit was terminated sooner than he expected by news that the laws in the United States regarding Chinese were becoming more stringent. He heard, he said, that a State law of California forbade a Chinaman fromchanging his residence and that in San Francisco they were relegated to certain quarters. This the Minister regarded as a violation of the spirit of the Constitution of this Government. "This is probably a State law," said Secretary Lee "but it goes to show that measures towards our countrymen are becoming gradually more strict, so that in time it may be impossible for a Banks-Chinaman to live here at all. In San Francisco it is reported to us that a Chinaman must always remain in the ward where he first takes up his residence; that he cannot change." NGLISH AND CHINESE DICTIONARY. WITH THE PUNTI AND MANDARIN PRONUNCIATION. An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong. For comprehensiveness and practical services this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extenso: Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given the accents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, nchieving a clearness not breviously FALLS, on R. B. L. No. 28. and vacant spaces which have heretofore charac-To illustrate the vast scope of the work the 'articulars, apply to following facts are submitted for consideration:—

HONGKONG LAND INVEST- Chalmers' Vocabulary contains about 16,000 Chinese characters, and Medhurst's English

149 and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000, whilst this work contains more than '50,000' English words, and upwards of 600,000 Chinese charac ters. Again, despite all the grammars and BUNGALOW FURNISHED or other elementary works as yet published, the student of this difficult language absolutely requires examples to display the various appli-cations and equivalents of different words which [1644 have one general meaning. Of these examples this work contains more than five times as many as any other Dictionary hitherlo pub-

For practical purposes the arrangement of the work is so complete, that a reference to its understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found indispensable to all Europeans residing in Chine, and to the natives themselves it explains subjects fully with which very few indeed of them are perfectly acquainted.
